Summary

I am a student at Sri Krishna College of Technology, pursuing a Bachelor of Technology in Information Technology. I have completed three Google Cloud Skills Boost certifications, demonstrating my proficiency in data, ML, AI, and cloud computing. I have also developed my skills in React.js and AWS, using them to create and deploy web applications as part of my academic projects. I am passionate about learning new technologies and applying them to solve real-world problems. My goal is to become an IT engineer who can design, develop, and deliver innovative and scalable solutions for various domains and industries.
